BIDDER'S LETTER

Dear Realm Shareholder,

The Bidder (a special purpose vehicle owned by T2 Trust) is pleased to present you with this Offer to acquire all of your shares in Realm for $0.90 per Realm Share.

Premium to last traded price

The $0.90 per Realm Share price represents a:

- 5.9% premium to the last traded price of Realm Shares immediately prior to the last suspension of Realm Shares on the ASX on 13 July 2017;<sup>1</sup> and
- 9.8% premium to the 21 day VWAP of Realm Shares between 15 June 2017 and 13 July 2017.<sup>2</sup>

Liquidity option

As you are aware, the ordinary shares in Realm continue to be suspended from trading on the ASX having been suspended since 13 September 2016 with the exception of a short trading window in June to July 2017. During this time Realm has been unable to re-comply with ASX Listing Rules. Realm Shares currently remain suspended with no certainty as to when a relisting may occur.

The Offer is intended to provide Realm Shareholders with the certainty of immediate cash consideration in contrast to the uncertain value of Realm Shares whilst the Company remains suspended from trading on the ASX.

In addition, the Bidder Group currently holds an 85.71% interest in Realm Shares. The Bidder's intentions with respect to Realm if it does not acquire sufficient shares to enable it to compulsorily acquire the remaining Realm Shares are set out in section 5 of this Bidder's Statement. Notably, the Bidder is not supportive of Realm's continued listing on the ASX (or the capital raising necessary to lift the current suspension of Realm Shares). While the decision to apply for a removal of Realm from the official list of the ASX lies with the Board of Realm, the Bidder intends to actively encourage the Board of Realm to apply for the removal of Realm from the official list to the extent it is able to do so consistently with ASX guidance.

If you do not accept the Offer and the Bidder does not compulsorily acquire the Realm Shares which have not been accepted into the Offer, you will remain a minority shareholder in Realm. In that circumstance, given Realm's likely ongoing suspension from trading on the ASX and the Bidder's intention to actively encourage Realm to apply for removal of Realm from the official list, you may not be able to readily sell your shareholding.

Limited Conditionality

The Offer is conditional only on a customary prescribed occurrences condition and certain conditions regarding the Employee Securities (namely, by the end of the Offer Period, cancellation of the entitlement to shares under the Employee Options and vesting of all Employee Shares) – conditions which are generally within the control of Realm. Importantly the Offer is not subject to a minimum acceptance condition or regulatory approvals. Accordingly, subject to there being no prescribed occurrences before the end of the Offer Period and the conditions regarding the Employee Securities being satisfied, accepting Realm Shareholders will receive $0.90 cash for every Realm Share they hold. Once the Offer is declared unconditional, Realm Shareholders who accept the Offer will be paid within 1 month after the Offer is declared free from all Conditions.

1. Realm Shareholders should note that approximately 9 months have lapsed since Realm Shares were again suspended. Accordingly, the historical price of Realm Shares may not represent the value at which shares may trade on the ASX today.

2. Realm Shareholders should note that approximately 9 months have lapsed since Realm Shares were again suspended. Accordingly, the historical price of Realm Shares may not represent the value at which shares may trade on the ASX today.

The Bidder had hoped that the Offer would not be subject to the Conditions relating to the Employee Securities. However, the Bidder requires further information from Realm in order to dispense of those Conditions, namely the terms and conditions governing the Employee Securities, the number of outstanding invitations for Employee Options and the vesting terms for the Employee Shares. A request for that information was submitted on 6 February 2018. As of 9 March 2018, the Company has not provided the Bidder with the information requested and therefore the Offer remains subject to the Conditions relating to the Employee Securities.

We encourage you to read the Bidder's Statement for more details about the Offer, its terms and importantly the reasons for accepting the Offer. The Offer is currently open until 7pm (Sydney time) on 16 April 2018 unless extended or withdrawn. If you wish to accept the Offer, please follow the instructions set out in the Acceptance Form.

Yours sincerely,

REASONS TO ACCEPT THE OFFER

1 THE CASH CONSIDERATION PROVIDES AN IMMEDIATE LIQUIDITY EVENT AT AN ATTRACTIVE AND CERTAIN PRICE

Realm Shares have been suspended since 13 September 2016, with the exception of a short trading window in June to July 2017. Realm Shares remain suspended with no certainty regarding a re-instatement of trading. The Offer provides Realm Shareholders with the certainty of immediate Cash Consideration at an attractive price.

2 THE OFFER PROVIDES A PREMIUM TO HISTORIC TRADING LEVELS FOR YOUR REALM SHARES

The Offer represents:

- 5.9% premium on Realm Share price as at close of business on 13 July 2017, before quotation was re-suspended; and
- 9.8% premium on the volume weighted average price of Realm Shares on the period from 15 June 2017 to 13 July 2017.

3 REALM SHAREHOLDERS WILL NOT INCUR STAMP DUTY OR BROKERAGE CHARGES

Realm Shareholders who accept the Offer will not incur stamp duty or brokerage charges.

Realm Shareholders should refer to section 7 of this Bidder's Statement which provides a brief guide to the Australian taxation implications for certain Realm Shareholders who accept the Offer in return for the Cash Consideration. The information applies only to individuals who hold their Realm Shares on capital account. Note that the information is general only and does not take into account your personal circumstances. In addition, the Bidder recommends you seek independent professional advice in relation to your own particular circumstances, situation or needs.

4 IF THE OFFER IS NOT SUCCESSFUL, AND NO ALTERNATIVE PROPOSAL EMERGES, YOU MAY NOT BE ABLE TO SELL YOUR REALM SHARES

If the Offer is not successful, and in the absence of competing offers, there is a real risk that the value of your Realm Shares may decrease, therefore reducing the value of your investment and your exit opportunities.

Notably, the Bidder is not supportive of maintaining Realm's listing even if the Bidder is unable to acquire 100% of Realm Shares not held by Taurus.

If you do not accept the Offer and the Bidder does not compulsorily acquire the Realm Shares which have not been accepted into the Offer, you will remain a minority shareholder in Realm. In that circumstance, given Realm's likely ongoing suspension from trading on the ASX, you may not be able to readily sell your shareholding.

If you do not accept the Offer, and the outstanding Realm Shares are subject to compulsory acquisition by the Bidder, you may face a delay in receiving the consideration for your Realm Shares compared with Realm Shareholders who accepted the Offer during the Offer Period.

4 INFORMATION ON REALM CONTINUED

(c) Overview of Realm assets and operations

Realm's flagship asset is a 70% interest in Foxleigh. Foxleigh is owned and operated as a joint venture as follows:

Joint venturer	Interest in Foxleigh
Foxleigh Coal Pty Limited	70%
POSCO	20%
Nippon	10%

POSCO and Nippon are longstanding customers of Foxleigh.

The mine was established in 1999 as an open cut operation producing benchmark quality, low-volatile pulverised coal injection metallurgical coal for the export market. Low-volatile pulverised coal injection coal is used in steel production, principally by customers in Japan and Korea. Saleable production in CY2017 was approximately 2,963 thousand tonnes (100% basis).

Foxleigh is comprised of seven mining leases and three exploration permits for coal. Mining is undertaken using conventional truck and shovel operations, with raw coal delivered to Foxleigh's coal handling and preparation plant. Product coal is hauled 27km to a dedicated train loading facility before being railed 280km to the Dalrymple Bay Coal Terminal near Mackay, Queensland.

Realm acquired its 70% interest in Foxleigh on 29 August 2016 from Anglo with the transaction undertaken by Realm's 99.9% owned subsidiary Middlemount South Pty Ltd. Under the transaction, Middlemount South Pty Ltd acquired 100% of the shares in Foxleigh Coal Pty Limited and 100% of EPC 1669 tenement from Anglo. Foxleigh Coal Pty Limited owns 70% of the Foxleigh joint venture and 100% of EPC 855.

As part of the Foxleigh transaction, bank guarantees totalling A$85.3m were put in place as follows:

- in favour of the State of Queensland in respect of the mining licences of the Foxleigh joint venture; and
- in favour of various counterparties to Foxleigh joint venture contracts.

As part of the terms of the Foxleigh transaction, Foxleigh Coal Pty Limited is obliged to pay Anglo a semi-annual royalty on its 70% share of coal extracted and sold from the assets acquired for a period of 12.5 years. The royalty payments are made based on the Average Coal Price Achieved ("ACPA") in each six-month royalty period based on the following scale:

- if ACPA is greater than A$105 per tonne then a payment of A$1.00 per tonne; or
- if ACPA is greater than A$115 per tonne then a payment of A$2.00 per tonne; or
- if ACPA is greater than A$130 per tonne then a payment of A$3.00 per tonne.

Royalty payments are capped at A$75.0m in aggregate.

(d) Overview of Realm debt facilities

Realm has in place a US$98.5m secured loan facility provided by Taurus Mining Finance Fund. The secured loan facility comprises a performance guarantee facility for US$78.5m and a working capital facility for US$20m and has a current maturity date of 31 January 2019. Drawn amounts of the secured loan facility attract a 9.0% per annum interest rate.<sup>5</sup>

5 THE BIDDER'S INTENTIONS

5.1 GENERAL

This section 5 sets out the Bidder's intentions in relation to:

- (a) the continuation of Realm's business and assets;
- (b) any major changes to be made to the business of Realm, including any redeployment of the assets of Realm; and
- (c) the future employment of the present employees of Realm and the future appointment of the Realm Directors.

These intentions are based on the information concerning Realm, its business and the general business environment which is known to the Bidder at the time of preparation of this Bidder's Statement.

The Bidder does not currently have full knowledge of all material information, facts and circumstances that are necessary to assess the operational, commercial, tax and financial implications of its current intentions. Final decisions regarding these matters will only be made by the Bidder in light of material information and circumstances at the relevant time. Accordingly, the statements set out in this section 5 are statements of current intent only, which may change as new information becomes available to the Bidder or as circumstances change.

5.2 INTENTIONS UPON BECOMING THE HOLDER OF GREATER THAN 90% OF REALM SHARES

This section sets out the Bidder's current intentions if the Bidder Group becomes the holder of 90% or more of the Realm Shares, and is entitled to proceed to compulsory acquisition of the outstanding Realm Shares.

(a) Compulsory acquisition

If the Bidder Group becomes the holder of at least 90% of Realm Shares and acquires at least 75% of the Realm Shares that the Bidder offered to acquire under the Offer, and the Conditions are satisfied or waived, the Bidder intends to give notices to compulsorily acquire any outstanding Realm Shares in accordance with Part 6A.1 (compulsory acquisition following a takeover bid) of the Corporations Act. If the Bidder compulsorily acquires your Realm Shares under this avenue, you will receive the Cash Consideration.

If the Bidder Group becomes the holder of at least 90% of Realm Shares but does not acquire at least 75% of the Realm Shares that the Bidder offered to acquire under the Offer, and the Conditions are satisfied or waived, the Bidder intends to give notices to compulsorily acquire any outstanding Realm Shares in accordance with Part 6A.2 (general compulsory acquisition) of the Corporations Act.

If the Bidder proceeds to compulsory acquisition under Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act, an independent expert's report will be prepared which will state whether, in the expert's opinion, the terms proposed in the compulsory acquisition notice give a fair value for the securities concerned. Provided that the Bidder meets the requirements of the Corporations Act (including a favourable expert's report), the Bidder will be entitled to compulsorily acquire the remaining Realm Shares not accepted under the Offer if:

- (i) no Realm Shareholder objects to the compulsory acquisition or the number of objecting Realm Shareholders represents less than 10% of the value of those remaining securities at the end of the objection period; or
- (ii) the court approves the acquisition.

(b) ASX Listing

At the conclusion of the compulsory acquisition process, the Bidder intends to actively encourage the Board of Realm to apply for the removal of Realm from the official list of the ASX.

(c) Head office

After the end of the compulsory acquisition process, the Bidder intends to undertake an orderly transfer of Realm's corporate functions from Sydney to Brisbane. This will involve the closure of Realm's Sydney office with all corporate roles to be located in Brisbane.

(d) Operations and assets

The Bidder's intention is to continue the operation of Realm's existing business and in particular to focus on the successful operation of Foxleigh. The Bidder's primary focus will be on ensuring that the activities at Foxleigh are undertaken in accordance with all operating permits, licences and regulations and in-line with industry best practice environmental, social and governance standards.

The Bidder intends to undertake a divestment of Realm's Alumicor and Chrometco interests.

(e) Directors and Employees

Following the end of the Offer Period and consistent with the above intentions, it is intended that the Bidder will conduct a broad based review of the employment and roles of all of Realm's employees and the ongoing appointment of the Realm Directors.

As a result of its review, the Bidder may identify employee positions which will not be required by the Combined Group, including positions related to operations that the Bidder divests. It is possible that job losses will result from this review. If redundancies do occur, the relevant employees will receive those contractual or other legal entitlements they are entitled to receive.

5.3 INTENTIONS UPON BECOMING THE HOLDER OF LESS THAN 90% OF REALM SHARES

If the Bidder Group becomes the holder of less than 90% of the Realm Shares then the Bidder will not be able to compulsorily acquire the Realm Shares which have not been accepted into the Offer. In this circumstance:

- (a) the Bidder will seek to implement the intentions in Section 5.2 to the extent possible;
- (b) the Bidder will seek to replace all current Realm Directors (other than those which it determines to retain following a review) with nominees of the Bidder;
- (c) the Bidder is not supportive of Realm's continued listing on the ASX (or the capital raising necessary to lift the current suspension of Realm Shares from trading on the ASX). While the decision to apply for a removal of Realm from the official list of the ASX lies with the Board of Realm, the Bidder will actively encourage Realm to apply for removal of Realm from the official list of the ASX to the extent it is able to do so consistently with ASX guidance. ASX's guidance in relation to the removal of entities from the official list of the ASX is set out in ASX Guidance Note 33.

If, following a takeover, the number of Realm Shareholders (excluding the Bidder and its Related Bodies Corporate) having holdings with a value of at least $500 is not fewer than 150, it is uncertain what conditions would be imposed by ASX in circumstances where, in the Bidder's opinion, there is currently no reasonable prospect of the suspension of Realm Shares being lifted. In the context of a company which is not suspended, ASX generally imposes the condition that shareholder approval is required for the removal (and for 12 months after a takeover bid, any votes cast by the bidder and its associates will be excluded). ASX guidance on this issue also notes that an unacceptable reason for requesting removal from the official list is if the company is doing so solely or primarily to deny minority shareholders a market for their securities in order to coerce them into accepting an offer from a controlling shareholder to buy their securities (noting however that, in this case, Realm is suspended so there is no market at present). Even if shareholder approval is not obtained or ASX otherwise does not wholly agree to the request for removal from the official list, Realm Shareholders should note that ASX's policy is to remove from the official list any entity whose securities have been suspended from trading for a continuous period of 3 years.

If, following a takeover, the number of Realm Shareholders (excluding the Bidder and its Related Bodies Corporate) having holdings with a value of at least $500 is fewer than 150, then ASX would be expected to delist Realm without conditions.

In considering the Bidder's prospects of succeeding with these intentions, Realm Shareholders should note the intention regarding the ongoing appointment of the Realm Directors set out in section 5.3(b). Any nominee directors that the Bidder appoints may be supportive of an application for Realm's removal from the official list, subject to their fiduciary duties to act in the best interests of Realm; and

- (d) the Bidder will continue to deal with its stake in Realm with a view to maximising its returns.

5.4 INTENTIONS GENERALLY

Except for the changes and intentions set out in this section 5, the Bidder intends, based on the information presently known to it:

- (a) to continue the business of Realm;
- (b) not to make any major changes to the business of Realm or the deployment of Realm's assets; and
- (c) to continue the employment of Realm's employees.

5.5 LIMITATIONS ON INTENTIONS

The intentions and statements of future conduct set out in this section 5 must be read as being subject to:

- (a) the law (including the Corporations Act) and the ASX Listing Rules, including in particular the requirements of the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules in relation to conflicts of interest and "related party" transactions given the Bidder is or will be a related party of Realm for these purposes; and
- (b) the legal obligations of the Realm Directors at the time, including any nominees of the Bidder, to act in good faith in the best interests of Realm Shareholders and for proper purposes and to have regard to the interests of all Realm Shareholders.

Accordingly, this section 5 must be read and understood on this basis.

BIDDER FUNDING

6.1 CONSIDERATION UNDER THE OFFER

The Cash Consideration for the acquisition of Realm Shares will be satisfied in cash (in Australian dollars).

6.2 CASH CONSIDERATION

Based on the number of Realm Shares on issue as at the date of this Bidder's Statement, the maximum amount of cash that would be payable by the Bidder under the Offer if acceptances were received for all Realm Shares in return for the Cash Consideration is approximately $32,575,188.60.

On 16 February 2018, the Bidder, T2 Trust and T2 LP entered into the Bid Funding Agreement. Pursuant to the Bid Funding Agreement, T2 LP and T2 Trust are obliged to subscribe for shares in the Bidder for a subscription price which provides sufficient cash to allow the Bidder to meet its obligations under the Offer.

6.3 SOURCES OF CASH CONSIDERATION

(a) Cash amounts held by the Bidder

The Bidder has no cash reserves other than its initial share capital of $1,000.

(b) Cash available from T2 Trust and T2 LP

T2 Trust and T2 LP will fund their unconditional financial obligations under the Bid Funding Agreement using existing cash resources which have been allocated to satisfy its commitment under the Bid Funding Agreement. As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, the T2 Trust and T2 LP have (in aggregate) cash reserves in excess of US$16,600,000 (approximately A$21,200,000<sup>10</sup>). The remainder will be funded using unconditional undrawn capital commitments from investors in T2 Trust and T2 LP, the vast majority by value of which are third party passive institutional investors. The undrawn capital commitments can be utilised by T2 Trust and T2 LP by issuing drawdown notices to their investors when the need to deploy funds arises, and the investors of T2 Trust and T2 LP will be required to provide the funds requested within 14 days. For the purposes of this transaction, T2 Trust and T2 LP have sought and been granted consent and funding approval from their investors to proceed with the Offer. In addition, Realm Shareholders should note that, other than cash reserves, T2 Trust and T2 LP hold a portfolio of shares listed and readily tradeable on the ASX and the London Stock Exchange currently valued at over $90 million. Neither the cash nor the shares have been encumbered or otherwise allocated in favour of or to any third party.

T2 Trust and T2 LP have confirmed that they will maintain cash reserves and undrawn capital commitments of at least $32,575,188.60 during the Offer Period and compulsory acquisition process (except to the extent such amount is no longer needed to satisfy the Bidder's obligations under the Offer Terms or the compulsory acquisition process).

6.4 PROVISION OF CONSIDERATION

On the basis of the arrangements described in this section, the Bidder is of the opinion that it has a reasonable basis for holding the view, and holds the view, that the Bidder will be able to provide 100% of the Cash Consideration offered under the Offer.

10. Based on the USD/AUD spot rate as at 9 March 2018.

7 TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS

7.1 INTRODUCTION

The following is a general description of the Australian income and capital gains tax (CGT) consequences to Realm Shareholders on disposing of their Realm Shares (through acceptance of the Offer) in return for the Cash Consideration. The Australian taxation consequences for Realm Shareholders will depend on their individual circumstances. Realm Shareholders should make their own enquiries and seek independent professional advice on their circumstances. The comments set out below are relevant only to those Realm Shareholders who hold their Realm Shares as capital assets for the purpose of investment and who do not (or would not) hold those shares in connection with the conduct of a business or other employee share scheme.

These comments relate to Realm Shares only, and not to options or other rights held over Realm Shares. Certain Realm Shareholders, such as those engaged in a business of trading or investment, those who acquired their Realm Shares for the purpose of resale at a profit or those which are banks, insurance companies, tax exempt organisations, superannuation funds, or persons who acquired their Realm Shares in respect of their employment with Realm will or may be subject to special or different tax consequences peculiar to their circumstances.

Realm Shareholders who are not resident in Australia for tax purposes should also take into account the tax consequences under the laws of their country of residence, as well as under Australian law, of the disposal of Realm Shares under the Offer.

The following description is based upon Australian taxation law and practice in effect as at the date of the Original Bidder's Statement. It is not intended to be an authoritative or complete statement or analysis of the taxation laws applicable to the particular circumstances of every Realm Shareholder. Realm Shareholders should seek independent professional advice regarding the taxation consequences of disposing of Realm Shares in the light of their own particular circumstances.

7.2 AUSTRALIAN RESIDENT REALM SHAREHOLDERS

Acceptance of the Offer will involve the disposal by Realm Shareholders of their Realm Shares, by way of transfer to the Bidder. In relation to Realm Shares held on capital account and acquired, or deemed to have been acquired, by the relevant Realm Shareholders before 20 September 1985, such disposal should not give rise to any CGT implications.

Conversely, the disposal of Realm Shares acquired, or deemed to have been acquired, on or after 20 September 1985 and which are held on capital account will generally have CGT implications. Such disposal will constitute a CGT event for CGT purposes.

Australian resident Realm Shareholders may make a capital gain or capital loss on the disposal of their Realm Shares under the Offer.

Capital gains and capital losses of a taxpayer in a year of income are aggregated to determine whether there is a net capital gain. If so, that net capital gain is included in assessable income and is subject to income tax. However, a 'CGT Discount' may be available to reduce the taxable gain for certain Realm Shareholders (see further below).

Capital losses may not be deducted against other income for income tax purposes, but may be offset against capital gains realised in the same income year or be carried forward to be offset against future capital gains.

In general, the capital gain or loss arising on the disposal of a Realm Share under the Offer will be calculated on the basis of the difference between the value of the capital proceeds (i.e. the cash consideration received from Bidder) and the cost base of the share.

The cost base of Realm Shares is generally their cost of acquisition or deemed cost of acquisition. Certain other amounts associated with acquisition and disposal, such as brokerage or stamp duty, may be added to the cost base. The capital loss will be calculated on the basis of the difference between the capital proceeds and the reduced cost base of the share.

However, if a Realm Share was acquired (or deemed to be acquired) at or before 11.45 am on 21 September 1999, the cost base may be indexed for inflation, by reference to changes in the Consumer Price Index from the calendar quarter in which the Realm

Share was acquired (or deemed to be acquired) until the calendar quarter ended 30 September 1999. Realm Shareholders who are individuals, complying superannuation entities or trustees of a trust must make an election if they wish to rely on indexation. Companies will be entitled to include the indexation without making an election. Indexation adjustments are taken into account only for the purposes of calculating a capital gain, and not a capital loss.

On the other hand, if a Realm Share was acquired (or deemed to be acquired) after 11.45 am on 21 September 1999, the capital gain or loss is generally calculated on the difference between the capital proceeds and the cost base for the share, with no indexation.

A Realm Shareholder who is an individual, complying superannuation entity or trustee of a trust, and who does not or cannot elect to adjust their cost base for indexation (as described above), may choose to claim a 'CGT Discount' if they acquired (or are deemed to have acquired) their Realm Shares 12 months or more before the time they accept the Offer. This means that:

- in the case of an individual (and, generally speaking, a trustee of a trust), only one-half of their net capital gain on those shares (after deducting available capital losses) will be taxable; and
- in the case of a complying superannuation entity, only two-thirds of their net capital gain on those shares (after deducting available capital losses) will be taxable.

Realm Shareholders who are trustees should obtain specific advice in this regard, including in relation to the tax consequences of distributions attributable to discounted capital gains.

Realm Shareholders should note that any available capital losses will be deducted from the gross capital gain before the 'CGT Discount' is applied.

Whether it is better for any given Realm Shareholder to make the indexation election or not will depend upon the particular Realm Shareholder's individual circumstances, including the cost base of the Realm Shares and whether the Realm Shareholder has any available losses. Realm Shareholders should consult their own tax advisers in this regard.

The 'CGT Discount' is not available to companies, nor does it apply to Realm Shares owned (or deemed to be owned) for less than the relevant 12 month period.

7.3 NON-AUSTRALIAN RESIDENT REALM SHAREHOLDERS

A Realm Shareholder who is not a resident of Australia for taxation purposes ("Foreign Resident") will not make a taxable capital gain on the disposal of Realm Shares under the Offer unless their Realm Shares are taxable Australian property.

Realm Shares held by a Foreign Resident will not be taxable Australian property unless:

- both of the following requirements are satisfied:
  - the Foreign Resident (and any associates) hold, or have the option or right to acquire, 10% or more of the issued Realm Shares or the Foreign Resident (and any associates) previously held 10% or more of the issued Realm Shares for a continuous 12 month period during the two years prior to the disposal of the Realm Shares under the Offer; and

7 TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS CONTINUED

- the total market value of Realm’s Australian real property assets (including any mining, quarrying or prospecting rights for minerals, petroleum or quarry minerals which are situated in Australia) is more than 50% of the total market value of Realm’s assets; or
- they were used at any time by the Foreign Resident in carrying on a business through a permanent establishment in Australia.

The Foreign Resident capital gains withholding regime may also apply to the disposal of Realm Shares by non-resident Realm Shareholders. Under this regime, a 12.5% non-final withholding tax may apply to the disposal of the Realm Shares by a foreign resident and the Bidder may be required to withhold and remit an amount (generally equal to 12.5% of the purchase price) to the ATO. However, if the Foreign Resident Realm Shareholder applies to vary the withholding rate or makes a declaration that the Realm Shares are not an indirect Australian real property interest, the disposal may be subject to a reduced rate of withholding or not be subject to any withholding. All non-resident Realm Shareholders should seek independent professional advice in light of their own circumstances.

If you are a non-Australian tax resident, it is recommended that you obtain your own independent professional advice as to the Australian tax consequences arising from the disposal of your Realm Shares.

7.4 STAMP DUTY AND GST

The Bidder will pay the stamp duty (if any) payable in Australia on the transfers of Realm Shares under the Offer. No GST will be payable on such transfers, except that GST will be payable on any fees or charges that a Controlling Participant (in respect of Realm Shares in a CHESS Holding) or a broker, bank, custodian or other nominee (in respect of Realm Shares held for a separate beneficial owner) may charge in connection with acceptance of the Offer.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

8.1 ASIC RELIEF

ASIC has published various 'class orders' instruments providing for modifications and exemptions that apply generally to all persons, including the Bidder, in relation to the operation of Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act.

Among others, for the purpose of the Offer, the Bidder may rely on the provisions of Class Order [CO 13/521].

8.2 OTHER REGULATORY MATTERS

The Offer required notification to the Treasurer of Australia and the receipt of a no objections notification under the FATA as T2 LP and the Bidder each constitute a foreign government investor for the purposes of the FATA as one or more foreign government related entities from the same country have in aggregate a 20% or more ultimate interest in T2 LP.

On 12 February 2018, the Bidder obtained a no objections notification from the Treasurer of Australia in respect of the Offer under the FATA.

8.3 POTENTIAL FOR WAIVER OF CONDITIONS

The Offer is subject to limited and customary Conditions (set out in Appendix 2). Under the terms of the Offer and the Corporations Act, any or all of the Conditions may be waived by the Bidder.

If an event occurs which results (or would result) in the non-fulfilment of a Condition, the Bidder might not make a decision as to whether it will either rely on that occurrence, or instead waive the Condition in respect of that occurrence, until the date for giving notice as to the status of the Conditions of the Offer under section 630(3) of the Corporations Act. If the Bidder decides that it will waive a Condition, it will announce that decision on the ASX in accordance with section 650F of the Corporations Act.

If any of the Conditions are not fulfilled, and the Bidder decides to rely on that non-fulfilment, then any contract resulting from acceptance of the Offer will become void on (or, in some cases, shortly after) the end of the Offer Period, and the relevant Realm Shares will be returned to the holder.

8.4 STATUS OF CONDITIONS

The Offer is subject to limited and customary Conditions (set out in Appendix 2).

The Bidder notes that, on 27 February 2018, Realm lodged an Appendix 3C announcing the buy-back and cancellation of 2,116,666 employee plan shares in Realm and lodged an Appendix 3B announcing the issue of 500,000 new ordinary shares in Realm under its Directors and Employees Incentive Plan.

As a result, Condition (a)(iii) and Condition (a)(iv) set out in Appendix 2 have been triggered. However the Bidder has determined that it will not rely on such non-fulfilment in respect of the events described in the previous paragraph.

The Bidder will provide further updates on the status of the Conditions during the Offer Period, in accordance with section 630 of the Corporations Act.

Other than as disclosed in this section, as at the date of this Bidder's Statement, the Bidder is not aware of any events or circumstances which would result in the non-fulfilment of any of the Conditions. If the Conditions in Appendix 2 are not fulfilled or waived, then no contract will be capable of arising at all from the acceptance of the Offer.

8.5 DUE DILIGENCE

For the purpose of confirming its assessment whether or not to acquire all of the Realm Shares, the Bidder was given access by the Company to certain limited information concerning the Company which has not been disclosed generally to Realm Shareholders.

Except as disclosed in this Bidder's Statement, none of the information to which the Bidder was given access is, in the opinion of the Bidder, of such a nature and quality which, if the information were generally available, a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of Realm Shares. Further, in the opinion of the Bidder and except as disclosed in this Bidder's Statement, none of that information would otherwise be material to a decision by a Realm Shareholder whether or not to accept the Offer.

The Bidder's decision to make the Offer, however, was confirmed by its review of the information to which it had access, which may itself be regarded as information material to the decision of a Realm Shareholder whether or not to accept the Offer.

8.6 OTHER MATERIAL INFORMATION

Except as disclosed in this Bidder's Statement, there is no other information that is:

- (a) material to the making of a decision by a Realm Shareholder whether or not to accept the Offer; and
- (b) known to the Bidder,

and has not previously been disclosed to Realm Shareholders.

6.3 Effect of breach or non-fulfilment

The breach or non-fulfilment of any of the Conditions set out in Appendix 2 does not, until the end of the Offer Period, prevent a contract arising to acquire your Realm Shares resulting from your acceptance of the Offer but, if at the end of the Offer Period (or, in the case of the Conditions in paragraph (a) (Prescribed Occurrences) of Appendix 2, at the end of three Business Days after the end of the Offer Period), in respect of any Condition in Appendix 2:

- (a) the Bidder has not declared the Offer (and it has not become) free from that Condition; and
